Got Money to Burn?

If you're spending thousands on hiring the "right" salespeople but not getting thousands in return, you're not alone.

50% of all salespeople aren't really salespeople at all. They do a remarkable job selling themselves during the interview, then fall exceedingly short in the field. They make promises but simply can't deliver. They make everyone else's job more difficult. They're costly, damaged goods. They're hiring mistakes you cannot afford to make.

Yours for the asking!

The Omnia Group, a leader in employee selection and management, is offering 3 COMPLIMENTARY TOOLS that take the guesswork out of hiring salespeople and ensure you never make another bad hiring decision.
